Gender Studies & Feminist Research at McMaster is an exciting interdisciplinary program. We accept students from a wide variety of backgrounds who are interested in the study of gender, sexuality and feminism. GSFR is a dynamic program, with small enough student numbers to ensure that everyone receives personal mentoring.

- Research Symposium
  The research symposium brings internationally, nationally and locally known scholars and activists to campus for lectures and seminars.

- Knowledge in Action
  Our core course, “Knowledge in Action,” includes working with local community organizations.

- One-Year M.A. Degree
  - Intensive investigation of current debates in femininst/gender theory
  - Exposure to emerging interdisciplinary scholarship
  - Independent Research Project

- Graduate Diploma for Ph.D. students
  - Enhanced training in femininst/gender research for discipline-based doctoral students
  - Participation in advanced Research Symposia
